

World Down Syndrome Awareness Day

Bowl-a-thon & Silent Auction Fundraiser

LED BY TEAM JACK IN NORTHERN COLORADO

Help salute the 2022 World Down Syndrome Awareness Day — observed March 21 worldwide but celebrated throughout the month in northern Colorado.

The local celebrations support the International Mosaic Down Syndrome Association (donations are welcome anytime at imdsa.org).

This year's key northern Colorado celebration is the Sunday, March 6, joint bowl-a-thon and silent auction (see "Save the Date" inset). To participate, form a bowling team or donate to the auction. For more info, contact Roxanne Batezel at 970-980-7486 or sensaonline2@yahoo.com.

Down syndrome is the most common chromosomal disorder (one out of 691 live births). Mosaic Down syndrome and translocation Down syndrome are rare forms of the syndrome. People with any form of the syndrome have a wide range of talents and abilities.

Jack's a 10th-grader at Windsor High School in northern Colorado.
